Schlitz Beer is Good for You

The malt is a food; the hops a tonic. The alcohol—only 3 1/2 per cent—is an aid to digestion; a healthful stimulant.

Schlitz Beer is brewed with the extreme of cleanliness—cooled in filtered air—and every bottle is sterilized.

It is one of the best things in the world for you.

It does not ferment on the stomach, because it is aged—aged for months in refrigerating rooms before it is marketed.

It gives you back without biliousness. Ask your doctor what he thinks about drinking Schlitz beer. Ask for the Brewery Bottling.

TALKING FOR TEMPERANCE

The committee reported and nominated Rev. C. C. Carroll for chairman.
Dr. Izlar for secretary and Baxter Carn for treasurer. Rev. Carroll objected to serving in that capacity as he was a new man and not well known to the people. He wanted at the head a well known business man of character and who favored the cause and he (Carroll) would do all he could to help him. Rev.
Carroll proposed the name of Baxter Carn, but he, too, declined, but agreed with Rev. Carroll that the chairman should be just such a man as Rev. C. had indicated. Rev. Moore, accepted Rev. Carroll's suggestion and Captain Ditto agreed with Rev. Moore.

G. W. Martin thought that Rev. Carroll was the man needed. He had abilities, experience, was able and aggressive, and if not now known he would be to all before the campaign was over.

Baxter Carn remarked that to get a man with the qualifications named by Rev. Carroll he would have to be sought in heaven.

Mr. Isaac Stevens was then named and unanimously elected. But in taking the chair, he, too, declined, because his hearing was defective, but the difficulty was overcome by having Mr.
Stevens serve until the next meeting of the league.

Dr. Izlar declined the secretaryship, said he couldn't spare the time, and J. C. Jones was then elected.

A motion was made that a committee be named by the chair to select a chairman by next meeting, the said committee to consist of Messrs. Martin, Carn, Moore, Izlar and Ditto, Carroll.

On motion of Baxter Carn, a finance committee was appointed, of which Rev. Moore was made chairman, with Baxter Carn and two ladies, to be named by the chairman.

Rev. Carroll was named as press agent to see the local papers and get a column of space each from them.

Dr. Izlar was appointed to get the names of the registered voters.

There was some further discussion about getting a party in each voting precinct to act with the league, and the meeting adjourned.

There was one noticeable feature of the gathering: Not one speaker was applauded, though the speeches made were good.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could hardly see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50c bottle worked wonders, and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by the Postoffice Drugstore.

THE COLORED PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

Rev. J. E. A. Keeler, Editor.

Gone, But Not Forgotten!

Mr. Archie Jacobs, husband of Mrs.
Sibbie Jacobs of this city, aged 61, departed this life at his home Wednesday, July 19, 1905, at 3:30 p. m. We must say something relative to his past life. He was a man that always attended to his own business. The writer will take authority to say that there is no one in this city or any other city who can truthfully say that they have ever heard of Mr. Jacobs speaking ill of them without a cause.
He was a man that worked for an honest living. He had connected with his character what every sane man as a husband and a father ought to have, and that is tender care and unsurpassable respect for his family. The writer was pleased to hear his loving wife and obedient children say that all while he lived, and was able to resume his business, that every request that they made of him that was most essential that were not granted of him. To know him was to love him. As a business man he stood high in his community among white and colored. But the main staff that humanity travels thro', aside from that of prayer, courtesy, is pay your just debts. That was one of the main staffs that our friend, Archie Jacobs, carried daily. He was the father of seven children, two dead and five still surviving, four daughters and one son. But one thing he did not neglect, and that is, he worked hard and educated his children. The writer, on last Saturday morning, July 15, while standing at the foot of his bed as he was nearing the Jordan of death, read for him the 23rd Psalm, and then bowed in prayer. While the writer prayed, Mr. Jacobs' cheeks were bathed in tears. He raised his hands and cried several times, "Yes!" "Yes!"
"Yes!" After prayer the writer sang several songs, of which we will not mention. And, Oh! How he did rejoice! The writer then asked him if the Lord should call him was he prepared to go. His answer was "Yes!"
"Yes!" Too much cannot be said of him, but now he is gone we sympathize with the bereaved family. His funeral was preached yesterday at 11:30 a. m., by the writer, who were assisted by Revs. S. A. Huger, P. E. P. G. Govens, J. S. Braswell, G. W. Cook and J.
S. Bartley.
